Stand Political Changes

Take Place at Sappord

Safford, Aria, Oct. 12.—The political changes are numerous. B. F. Thum has withdrawn his candidacy for county treasurer, and is running for state auditor. Author Jacobson has withdrawn from the race for shoriff and is running for the legislature. A. R. Lynch, a member of the constitutional convention, has announced himself as a candidate for the legislature. Frank Layetton for treasurer and W. W. Race for the state senate are now candidates. In the state senate are now candidates. In act no one man can seem to remember all those who are running for office.

WALSH'S NAME IS NOT AMONG PAROLES Leavenworth, Kas. Oct. 12.—In the first list of paroles granted by the federal board of parole at its last meeting the name of John R.
